With 130 million Internet users and 13 million broadband connections, Latin America is poised for rapid FTTH growth. Are you ready for your piece of this emerging FTTH market? Register today for the 2013 Fiber to the Home (FTTH) LATAM Annual Conference, 13-15 May, at the Grand Hyatt in São Paulo, Brazil.

Attending this conference gives you the opportunity to build business connections with FTTH equipment manufacturers, solutions providers, independent telecoms, and other broadband providers who all share a similar goal: driving successful FTTH market expansion in Latin America.

Keynote Speakers

This year, FTTH is proud to announce that Maximiliano Martinhão, Secretary of Telecommunications for the Brazilian Ministry of Communications, will be delivering the opening keynote address. Martinhão, the former General Manager of Certification and Spectrum Engineering at Anatel, received his Masters in Telecommunications Management at the University of Strathclyde in Scotland and represents the Brazilian government at various national and international telecommunications forums. Other keynote speakers include: Jeff Andrick, Film/Entertainment Finance Consultant, XL Entertainment Media Group; Carolina Cosse, President, National Telecommunications Administration (Antel), Uruguay; and André Krieger, Director, Telefónica Vivo, S.A.

Panel Discussions

This year's panel discussions have been designed to provide participants with comprehensive information on a variety of topics. For more information about scheduled events, visit www.FTTHCouncil.org/LATAM2013.

- Panel 1: Proven Technology, Successful FTTH Architectures
- Panel 2: FTTH Council Global Alliance Updates
- Panel 3: Technology Innovations That Have Arrived and Continue to Evolve
- Panel 4: Technology for Revenue Generation

Hotel Reservations

Unfortunately, the Grand Hyatt São Paulo has sold out, so we encourage all delegates to call the hotel directly at +55-11-2838-1234 for up-to-date availability. If there is availability, please let the hotel know you are with the FTTH LATAM Annual Conference in order to receive the group rate.

If you are unable to book at the Grand Hyatt São Paulo, the following hotels are nearby and do have availability. FTTH LATAM does not have special rates with these properties, but we suggest booking a room due to the close proximity to the conference hotel.

- Sheraton
- Grand Estanzola
- Hilton São Paulo Morumbi
